The delta wheeled stand for Monitor Microsoft Surface Hub is now available.

The wheeled stand has the same practical features and precision which mark the Delta product line, yet it can be adapted to interactive monitors thanks to the new monitor fastening system.
The result is a sturdy, practical wheeled stand, with an easy handling.
Its wide shelf makes it possible to arrange different technological devices easily and safely.
The wheeled stand also provides perfect integration with a modular and perfectly articulated camera support or video-conferencing system.
The wheeled stand can also offer the opportunity to add a RACK or a battery support.
