IRIS - PLUS 400

SKU: 27129

Categories: Iris, Video Projector Mounts

Iris plus, is the iris camera and video conference bracket that can be combined with Euromet's ceiling monitor brackets. The Iris plus can be combined with all Euromet telescopic and fixed monitor brackets of any size.
With its length it allows the monitor to be passed over and thus the camera to be placed flush with the monitor at the bottom, ensuring both the elegance of the installation but also the perfect wiring.
Also confirming all the advantages of the Iris solution, such as the dual position at 0 or 90° and the fixing system with the different points.
