The historic “quadra” wall bracket is now plus. It allows to fix on the wall tablets and control consoles from any size or brand (e.g. CISCO), thanks to the 4 smart pins specially designed by Euromet.
The installation is very easy since only two plates have to be fixed together to guarantee the maximum stability without jeopardising the ease of usage.
The universal bracket is compatible with a huge number of tablets and consoles relying on a great number of fixing holes combinations.
The support system can also be moveable since the two body plates can be easily detached thanks to the quick unlock system.
